

ADT IN PHILOSOPHY

Philosophy is the study of the nature of reality, knowledge, and values through a critical analysis of fundamental assumptions or beliefs. The study of logic, ethics, and the history of philosophy provides a means of systemizing, assimilating, and evaluating information and the development of philosophical perspective. This degree prepares a student for transfer to the California State University system as a philosophy major. A bachelor's degree in philosophy is excellent preparation for a career in law, theology, or education.

Learning Outcomes

A.S.-Transfer Degree Level Student Learning Outcomes

Students completing the Philosophy A.A.-Transfer Degree will:

1. Demonstrate understanding of philosophical issues and vocabulary.
2. Demonstrate ability to read analytically and critically.
3. Use the terminology of logical analysis or other argumentative skills to evaluate philosophical arguments, in order to formulate a well-reasoned philosophical thesis, and to demonstrate critical thinking skills.
4. Read original philosophical texts from a wide range of the history of philosophy, demonstrating comprehension, to show understanding of major philosophical issues.
5. State a philosophical thesis clearly, support it with arguments and examples, and anticipate and respond to reasonable objections, in order to show the ability to formulate a well-reasoned philosophical thesis.
6. Apply methods of formal logical analysis to test the validity of arguments, to show understanding of the value of formal methods.

Requirements

Students receiving this transfer degree must meet the following requirements:

1. Completion of 60 semester units or 90 quarter units that are eligible for transfer to the California State University, including both of the following:
